Toxic Art and Craft Materials

The district recognizes its responsibility to protect students from the hazards of toxic art and craft materials. The administration will ensure that student safety will be met and all the requirements of state law enforced.

The district will:

1. Assure that copies of the Oregon Health Division list of approved (those not containing toxic substances) art and craft materials are distributed to all people responsible for the selection or purchase of art materials;
2. Assure that when art and craft materials are being selected for use by students in grades kindergarten through six, only those on the Health Division list are purchased;
3. Assure that art and craft materials containing toxic substances purchased for use by students in grades seven through twelve are properly labeled.
