Student Transportation

Eligible School Bus Riders

The definition for eligible school bus riders shall be all those students who live outside the walk-in boundaries for their school in accordance with Board policy EEA – Student Transportation Services.

Ineligible School Bus Riders

The definition for ineligible school bus riders shall be all those students who live within the walk-in boundaries for their school in accordance with Board policy EEA – Student Transportation Services.

Courtesy Transportation for Ineligible School Bus Riders

The district will provide courtesy transportation for ineligible school bus riders under the following conditions:

1. Space must be available on the regular bus route without displacing eligible school bus riders or overcrowding the bus;
2. Courtesy transportation will be honored only at existing stops for eligible school bus riders;
3. The district reserves the right to revoke the courtesy transportation for any reason. If the reason is for improper behavior on the bus it will be with no advance warning. If the reason is for overcrowding, the Transportation Office will attempt to contact families in advance;
4. To request courtesy transportation families must contact the Transportation Office. A roster will be kept in the event transportation is revoked. Consideration for courtesy transportation will end each school year.
