Community Relations

The Board believes that a constructive relationship between the district and the community is essential. To this end, the Board authorizes a community relations program that:

1. Promotes public support of and participation in the operation of the school system;
2. Encourages cooperation between the home and the school to the benefit of the student;
3. Encourages cooperation between community groups and the school to the benefit of the community;
4. Provides a comprehensive, two-way flow of information about the programs, progress and problems of the school system with the home, the community and the staff.

Fulfillment of this policy will be the responsibility of the superintendent.
