Board Elections

General Organization

The Board shall be comprised of seven members elected by the general electorate of the district by majority vote cast for that position. The seven positions on the Board shall be filled by a resident, legally empowered to serve on the Board, of the residential zone hereinafter defined. Should that Board member change his/her residence to another zone in the district, he/she may only serve as a Board member representing that zone until the current term expires.

The positions/zones are identified as follows:

1. Position 1, Zone 1: shall be a resident of the former School District 29R, outside the city limits of Athena or a resident of existing School District 29R of that area within the former Thornhollow and Gibbon School Districts.
2. Position 2, Zone 2: shall be a resident of that portion of former School District 19R west of R-36-E.
3. Position 3, Zone 3: shall be a resident of that portion of existing School District 29R lying within the city limits of Athena.
4. Position 4, Zone 4: shall be a resident of that portion of former School District 19R west of R-36-E.
5. Position 5, Zone 5: shall be a resident of that portion of existing School District 29R lying within the city limits of Athena.
6. Position 6, Zone 6: shall be a resident of former School District 19R east of R-35-E.
7. Position 7, Zone 7: shall be at large.

The term of office for a Board member shall be four years, commencing July 1 succeeding the school election at which the member was elected, with the following exceptions:

1. The member was elected to fill an unexpired term of a vacant position;
2. The member was appointed to fill a vacant position until June 30 following the next regular school district election.
