Disposal of Worn and Outdated Athletic Equipment

Items which can be repaired or reconditioned for a reasonable cost and which offer potential for continued use will be repaired and used again.

Items which might be dangerous to the user or which have no use or value will be destroyed.

Items which are no longer useful or usable, but which still have some value will be sold whenever possible and the income used to defray replacement costs.

Some items may be kept on hand for a variety of uses for which they were not intended (i.e., football helmets and shoulder pads often used in plays and rally skits).

Items which have a value of more than $50 will be submitted to the Board with an estimated value and proposed disposition prior to disposal.
