School Grounds Occupancy

School Grounds

School grounds includes all land owned by the district and used for school related purposes. School grounds specifically include all school buildings, ball fields, tennis or basketball courts and parking lots.

Occupancy of School Grounds

School grounds may only be occupied or used by permission of the appropriate building administrator. The building administrator with authority to grant or deny access to school grounds is the superintendent and the principal for the school grounds which he/she is responsible. Each administrator may designate another school employee as his/her designee to carry out any powers he/she has with respect to the school grounds.

School Employees, Officials and Students

Except where the privilege is revoked, all students may occupy school grounds during normal school hours, including one-half hour before, one-half hour after normal school hours and otherwise while attending school activities. All school employees and officials may occupy school grounds while on school business. Any other occupancy of the school grounds is only permitted by the prior consent of the building administrator. This specifically includes, but is not limited to, any special meetings, gatherings of persons inside school buildings, gatherings of persons in parking areas and individuals occupying school grounds outside school hours without prior consent.

Visitors

Any nonschool employee, official or student may only be on school grounds either to attend activities to which the visitor is invited by the school or upon consent of the building administrator. Unless attending school activities which the visitor has been invited, all visitors must immediately upon entering school grounds, go to the office of the building administrator in charge particular school grounds, state the purpose of the visit and request a visitor's pass. Visitors may not remain on the school grounds unless a visitor's pass is granted.
