

Rules to Manage Release of Information

We recognize that some information is properly confidential. Examples include student information, personnel information and active investigations.

When information is deemed confidential and is sent out to the Board it will be marked as confidential with reason cited.

If there is a question, then an executive session to consider limits on release of the information can be called by the superintendent, Chair or any three members.

No member will release information until the majority of the Board has approved the release.
