Job Descriptions

Job descriptions contribute to a better understanding and respect for the responsibilities and duties of all district employees and are necessary for the evaluation and assessment of district operations. Job descriptions serve: (1) to describe all essential functions that the individual who holds the position must be able to perform unaided or with the assistance of a reasonable accommodation; (2) to describe attendance standards; (3) to help applicants determine the qualifications needed to fill a position; (4) to help district administrators determine which candidates to recommend for appointment and (5) to assist administrators in the evaluation of the employee's performance of position responsibilities.

"Essential functions" as used in this policy means the fundamental job duties of the employment position. A job function may be considered essential for any of several reasons, including but not limited to the following:

1. The function may be essential because the reason the position exists is to perform the function;
2. The function may be essential because of the limited number of employees available among whom the performance of the job function can be distributed; and/or
3. The function may be highly specialized so that the individual is hired for his/her expertise or ability to perform the particular function.

"Attendance standards" as used in this policy means the regular work hours of the position, including leave and vacation provisions available through policy and/or negotiated agreements and any special attendance needs of the position as determined by the district.

All job descriptions will include physical requirements of the employee.

It is the Board's intent to fulfill the legal requirements as set forth in state standards and regulations for job descriptions. Job descriptions will be developed under the supervision of the superintendent for each position in the district. Each job description shall be dated. As job descriptions are reviewed and/or revised, new dates will be affixed. All job descriptions are subject to review by the Board.

Job descriptions will be coded and retained in a document titled Job Descriptions for Baker City School District 5J. The document will be available for inspection by any district employee or patron. Each employee shall receive a copy of his/her job description. Each employee shall affix his/her signature and date after having read the job description.
