Graduation Exercises

All students in good standing who have completed the requirements may participate in the graduation exercise with the following exceptions and clarifications:

1. The student may participate if he/she is one credit ($\frac{1}{2}$ unit) short of graduation requirement and is in good standing with no current disciplinary action pending. The student may participate if he/she has not received disciplinary action prohibiting participation in the graduation exercise. Credit deficient students need to submit to the administration an acceptable plan to complete the credit.
2. Eligible students include those receiving a diploma, modified diploma or an alternative certificate.
3. Exceptions may be granted by the superintendent and/or the consensus of the Board.
