Alternative Education Programs Following Expulsion**

Prior to a student's expulsion or a student leaving school, the district will propose in writing to the student's parent/guardian or person in parental relationship appropriate, accessible educational alternative(s). Such alternative program(s) will be instructional and may be combined with counseling.

The proposal of potential alternatives will be hand-delivered or sent by certified mail to assure that the parent/guardian or person in parental relationship receives it prior to the time of an actual expulsion or leaving school.

Appropriate accessible programs may be either public or private (nonsectarian). Programs may be provided by the district as a separate school, evening classes or tutorial instruction. Homebound instruction could be considered an appropriate alternative.

The district shall pay the actual cost of the alternative program or an amount equal to 80 percent of the district's estimated current year's average per student net operating expenditure, whichever is less. The district shall provide or pay for transportation.

If a parent receives an exemption on a semi-annual basis to withdraw a student age 16 or 17, the district has no obligation to pay for an alternative program.

If a student is not successful in the alternative program selected or the alternative education programs offered are not accepted by the student and/or parent there is no obligation to propose or fund other alternatives.
