

Brookings-Harbor
School District 17C

Code: ECAB
Adopted: 10/17/07

Lost/Stolen Vandalized Property

The district will provide for replacement of most lost, stolen and vandalized district property that is properly identified and reported.

All employees shall report, and students are expected to report, to the building principal or supervisor any incidents of lost/stolen or vandalized property belonging to the district.

The principal or supervisor shall submit a full, detailed lost/stolen/vandalism report to his/her designated supervisor.

The Board will resort to necessary measures to protect school facilities, equipment and other district property against loss, theft and vandalism. In connection therewith, the Board believes it is proper to set times when access to district property by non-employees will be prohibited. The superintendent is delegated the responsibility of determining such times and for posting appropriate notices.

The superintendent or designee shall develop rules and regulations to implement the intent of this policy.
