Authorized Use of District Equipment and Materials

The purpose of the district's instructional materials and equipment and provision of instructional services is to enhance the education of the district's students. Therefore, the policy of the Board is to make instructional materials, equipment and services available to district staff for educational purposes. The district may also make materials, equipment and services available to other individuals and organizations. In neither case should the use interfere with district programs and services.

Exceptions to this policy must be approved by the superintendent and authorized use shall be consistent with ORS Chapter 244.

The superintendent is authorized to develop administrative rules needed to implement this policy.
