

Nondiscrimination

The Board prohibits discrimination and harassment on any basis protected by law, including but not limited to, an individual's perceived or actual race, color, national or ethnic origin, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability or perceived disability, pregnancy, familial status, economic status, veterans' status, sexual orientation¹ or marital status, or because of the perceived or actual race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, marital status, age, mental or physical disability or perceived disability, pregnancy, familial status, economic status, veterans' status of any other persons with whom the individual associates. This policy prevails in matters concerning staff, students, the public, educational programs and services and individuals with whom the Board does business.

The College prohibits discrimination and harassment, including but not limited to, in employment, assignment and promotion of personnel; in educational opportunities and services offered students; in student assignment to classes; in student discipline; in location and use of facilities; in educational offerings and materials; and in accommodating the public at public meetings.

The Board directs the President and designees to develop policies and procedures to accomplish these purposes, and to do so by involving staff in their development, to announce them generally to staff and public, and to provide for their implementation.

The President shall appoint and make known the individuals to contact on issues concerning the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VI, Title VII, Title IX and other civil rights or discrimination issues.²

The College will publish complaint procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints from students, employees and the public.

The College prohibits retaliation and discrimination against an individual who has opposed any discrimination act or practice; because that person has filed a charge, testified, assisted or participated in an investigation, proceeding or hearing; and further prohibits anyone from coercing, intimidating, threatening or interfering with an individual for exercising the rights guaranteed under state and federal law.

END OF POLICY

²The College is required to notify students and employees of the name, office address and telephone number of the employee or employees appointed.
