

Discrimination Complaint Procedure

Complaints regarding discrimination or harassment on any basis protected by law shall be processed in accordance with the following procedures:

Step 1: Complaints may be oral or in writing and must be filed with the compliance officer. The compliance officer shall investigate and determine the action to be taken, if any, and reply, in writing, to the complainant within 20 business days of receipt of the complaint.

Any staff member that receives a written or oral complaint, shall report the complaint to the compliance officer.

Step 2: If the complainant wishes to appeal the decision of the compliance officer, he/she may submit a written appeal to the President or designee within five business days after receipt of the compliance officer's response to the complaint. The President or designee may review the compliance officer's decisions and may meet with parties involved. The President or designee will review the merits of the complaint and the compliance officer's decision and respond, in writing, to the complaint within 10 business days.

Step 3: If the complainant is not satisfied with the decision of the President or designee, a written appeal may be filed with the Board within five business days of receipt of the President's or designee's response to Step 2. The Board may decide to hear or deny the request for appeal. The Board may hear the appeal with the concerned parties and their representative at a regular or special Board meeting. The Board's decision will be final and will include the legal basis for the decision, findings of fact and conclusions of law. A copy of the Board's final decision shall be sent to the complainant in writing within 10 days of this meeting.

If the compliance officer is the subject of the complaint, the individual may file a complaint with the President or designee. If the President or designee is the subject of the complaint, the complaint should be referred to the Board chair. The Board may refer the investigation to a third party.

Complaints against the Board as a whole or individual Board members should be made to the Board chair and may be referred to counsel. Complaints against the Board chair may be made directly to counsel

Timelines may be extended based upon mutual consent of both parties in writing.

If the complainant is not satisfied after exhausting local complaint procedures, or 90 days, whichever occurs first, he/she may appeal in writing to the Director for the Office of Community Colleges and Workforce Development (CCWD) under Oregon Administrative Rule (OAR) 589-010-0100.
