Copyrights and Patents

The Board asserts CESD's proprietary rights to publications, instructional materials, and other devices prepared by CESD employees during their paid work time. The Board also recognizes the importance of encouraging its professional staff to engage in professional writing, research, and other creative endeavors. Publications, articles, materials, models, and other items produced by CESD personnel for CESD use with CESD time, money, and facilities as part of an employee's job responsibilities remain the property of CESD.

CESD will apply for copyrights and patents when deemed appropriate by the superintendent. Employees will be expected to cooperate in CESD's efforts.

In the event that an employee produces items described above partly on his/her own time and partly on CESD time, CESD reserves the right to claim full ownership. The employee, however, may petition CESD for assignment of copyright or patent rights. Employees will not attempt to copyright or patent such items without the knowledge and consent of the superintendent.
