Instructional Resources/Instructional Materials

The Board recognizes the importance of instructional materials in achieving quality teaching and learning. The Board recognizes the responsibility of CESD to provide high quality materials for CESD-operated classrooms located in component school districts.

It shall be the policy of the Board to provide and maintain instructional materials which may contribute to the instructional programs of CESD and its component school districts; are appropriate to the learning levels of users; are relevant to the diverse issues, aspirations, attitudes, and ideas of the contemporary world; provide stimulus to creative thinking; and are of acceptable technical quality. The superintendent shall develop administrative regulations to assure that materials selected for and maintained by CESD meet these criteria.

The Board recognizes that in encouraging the selection of materials that contribute to the understanding of the diverse attitudes and values of this society and which meet the varying curriculum needs and values of the several communities, honest differences of opinion may occur about the appropriateness of those materials. The superintendent shall develop administrative regulations to assure that challenges are handled in the best interest of the students, teachers, and citizens of the district. Such regulations shall contain provisions for handling concerns about materials used in CESD classrooms operated in component school districts.
