Special Interest Materials

In general, supplementary printed materials from non-CESD sources should have the approval of the superintendent or designee before being used in CESD classrooms. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite CESD courses, and are timely.

Printed materials from non-CESD sources should not be displayed or distributed in CESD classrooms or on CESD grounds without approval of the superintendent or designee. Students may not be used as agents for distributing non-CESD-related materials to the homes without the superintendent's approval.

Teachers may use special aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts, and exhibits for educational purposes with the express approval of the superintendent or designee, even though these materials may bear the name of a commercial business firm that provided the aid.

Educational films and all video rentals secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the superintendent or designee prior to their use in CESD classrooms. Films and videos are not to be used for entertainment purposes without the explicit approval of the employee's supervisor.

This policy does not preclude teacher generated material to address individualized instruction.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly followed.
