

Clatskanie School District 6J

Code: IBDJA
Adopted: 1/28/08
Readopted: 5/06/13
Orig. Code(s): IBDJA

Relations with Home-Schooled Students

The district recognizes the rights of parents to educate students at home and acknowledges the education service district's (ESD) role in registering and monitoring test results for students who are being taught at home.

ESD registered home school students may attend district schools if space is available and approval is granted by the superintendent.

ESD registered home school students may be allowed to attend classes on a less than full-time basis and at the high school level are expected to arrive at school during the passing time prior to the class and to depart the building during the passing time following class.

The district may provide textbooks, materials, lesson plans or curriculum guides to students being instructed at home.

Home schooled students may participate in interscholastic activities if the following criteria are met:

1. The student is in compliance with all rules governing home schooling and can provide acceptable documentation of compliance to the district;
2. The student can meet the district eligibility requirements except the district or class attendance requirements;
3. Students need not meet class requirements of the voluntary association administering the interscholastic activities;
4. The student can achieve the minimum achievement test score required annually of home schooled students (students may participate while awaiting test results);
5. The student must fulfill the same responsibilities and standards of behavior and performance including related class or practice requirements of other students participating in the interscholastic activity. The students must meet the same standards for acceptance on the team or squad. The student must also comply with all public school requirements during the time of participation;
6. The student must reside in the attendance boundaries of the school for which the student participates;
7. An interscholastic activity is defined as an activity:
 - a. With optional student participation which complements the curriculum, encourages students' physical, academic or social development;

- b. Is supervised by district personnel;
- c. Is generally conducted outside the instructional day.
