

Nondiscrimination

The public charter school prohibits discrimination and harassment on any basis protected by law, including but not limited to an individual's perceived or actual race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation¹, national or ethnic origin, marital status, age, mental or physical disability or perceived disability, pregnancy, familial status, economic status or veterans' status, because of the perceived or actual race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national or ethnic origin, marital status, age, mental or physical disability or perceived disability, pregnancy, familial status, economic status or veterans' status of any other persons with whom the individual associates.

A public charter school may not limit student admission based on ethnicity, national origin, race, religion, disability, gender, sexual orientation, residence, health, income level, proficiency in English language, whether a student has an individualized education program (IEP) or the terms of that IEP, athletic ability or academic records, but may limit admission to students within a given age group or grade level.

The public charter school prohibits discrimination and harassment, including but not limited to, in employment, assignment and promotion of personnel; in educational opportunities and services offered students; in student assignment to the school and classes; in student discipline; in location and use of facilities; in educational offerings and materials; and in accommodating the public at public meetings.

The Board encourages staff to improve human relations within the school, to respect all individuals, and to establish channels through which citizens can communicate their concerns to the public charter school administration and the public charter school board.

The administrator shall appoint and make known, the individuals to contact on issues concerning the Americans with Disabilities Act and Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Title VI, Title VII, Title IX and other civil rights or discrimination issues². The public charter school board will adopt and the public charter school will publish complaint procedures providing for prompt and equitable resolution of complaints from students, employees and the public.

²Public charter schools are reminded that the public charter school is required to notify students and employees of the name, office address and telephone number of the employee or employees appointed.

The public charter school prohibits retaliation and discrimination against an individual who has opposed any discrimination act or practice; because that person has filed a charge;, testified, assisted or participated in an investigation, proceeding or hearing; and further prohibits anyone from coercing, intimidating, threatening or interfering with an individual for exercising the rights guaranteed under state and federal law.
