Independent Study

The following guidelines will govern the implementation of independent study in the district:

1. The basic purpose underlying independent study is to encourage students to pursue natural interests and abilities;
2. Credit for independent study may be awarded. It may be accomplished either as a “planned course” or by “examination”;
3. Independent study may be conducted on or off the campus;
4. Provision for independent study should be outlined in a specific written agreement involving the student, the parent and the school;
5. Students who have completed all the curriculum offered in a particular course either by participating in classes or passing the class by examination, may be eligible to earn college credits during the school day. These credits may be a part of the student’s planned educational program and be approved by the school. It shall be the financial responsibility of the parents to fund the college courses.
