Electronic Communications System

Mission Statement

The primary purpose of Coos Bay Network facilities (referred to here as Coos Bay Network) is to support and enhance learning by providing electronic communications and sharing information across the school district and the region affiliated with the ESD.

Definitions

1. "Technology protection measure," as defined by the Children's Internet Protection Act (CIPA), means a specific technology that blocks or filters Internet access to visual depictions that are:
 - a. Obscene, as that term is defined in Section 1460 of Title 18, United States Code;
 - b. Child pornography, as that term is defined in Section 2256 of Title 18, United States Code; or
 - c. Harmful to minors.
2. "Harmful to minors," as defined by CIPA, means any picture, image, graphic image file or other visual depiction that:
 - a. Taken as a whole and with respect to minors, appeals to a prurient interest in nudity, sex or excretion;
 - b. Depicts, describes or represents, in a patently offensive way with respect to what is suitable for minors, an actual or simulated sexual act or sexual contact, actual or simulated normal or perverted sexual acts, or a lewd exhibition of the genitals; and
 - c. Taken as a whole, lacks serious literary, artistic, political, or scientific value to minors.
3. "Sexual act; sexual contact," as defined by CIPA, have the meanings given such terms in Section 2246 of Title 18, United States Code.
4. "Minor," as defined by CIPA, means an individual who has not attained the age of 17. For the purposes of Board policy and this administrative regulation, minor will include all students enrolled in district schools.
5. "Inappropriate matter," as defined by the district, means material that is inconsistent with general public education purposes, the district's mission and goals.
6. "District proprietary information" is defined as any information created, produced or collected by district staff for the business or education purposes of the district including but not limited to student information, staff information, parent or patron information, curriculum, forms and like items used to conduct the district's business.
7. "District software" is defined as any commercial or staff developed software acquired using district resources.

General District Responsibilities

The district will:

1. Designate staff as necessary to ensure coordination and maintenance of the district's electronic communications system which includes all district computers, E-mail and Internet access;
2. Provide staff training in the appropriate use of the district's system including copies of district policy and administrative regulations. Staff will provide similar training to authorized system users;
3. Provide a system for authorizing staff use of personal electronic devices to download or access district proprietary information, that insures the protections of said information and insures its removal from the device when its use is no longer authorized;
4. Provide a system for obtaining prior written agreement from staff for the recovery of district proprietary information downloaded to staff personal electronic devices as necessary to accomplish district purposes, obligations or duties, and when the use on the personal electronic device is no longer authorized, to insure verification that information downloaded has been properly removed from the personal electronic device;
5. The district will designate the building administration to ensure proper authorization and use of technology resources following district guidelines and policy;
6. Cooperate fully with local, state or federal officials in any investigation related to misuse of the district's system;
7. Use only properly licensed software, audio, or video media purchased by the district or approved for use by the district. The district will comply with the requirements of law regarding the use, reproduction and distribution of copyrighted works and with applicable provisions of use or license agreements;
8. Install and use desktop and/or server virus detection and removal software;
9. Provide technology protection measures that protect against Internet access by both adults and minors to visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography or with respect to the use of computers by minors, harmful to minors. An administrator, supervisor or other individual authorized by the superintendent may disable the technology protection measures to enable access for bona fide research or other lawful purposes, as deemed appropriate;
10. "Prohibit access by minors," as defined by CIPA and this regulation, to inappropriate matter on the Internet and World Wide Web;
11. Provide staff supervision to monitor the online activities of students to prevent unauthorized access, including "hacking" and other unlawful activities online, and ensure the safety and security of minors when authorized to use E-mail, chat rooms and other forms of direct electronic communication;
12. Provide student education about appropriate online behavior, including cyberbullying awareness and response, and how to interact with other individuals on social networking and social media websites and in chat rooms;

13. Determine which users and sites accessible as part of the district's system are most applicable to the curricular needs of the district and may restrict user access, accordingly;
14. Determine which users will be provided access to the district's E-mail system;
15. Program its computers to display a message reinforcing key elements of the district's Electronic Communications System policy and regulation when accessed for use;
16. Notify appropriate systems users that:
 - a. The district retains ownership and control of its computers, hardware, software and data at all times. All communications and stored information transmitted, received or contained in the district's information system are the district's property and are to be used for authorized purposes only. Use of district equipment or software for unauthorized purposes is strictly prohibited. To maintain system integrity, monitor network etiquette and ensure that those authorized to use the district's system are in compliance with Board policy, administrative regulations and law, school administrators may routinely review user files and communications.
 - b. Files and other information, including E-mail, sent or received, generated or stored on district servers are not private and may be subject to monitoring. By using the district's system, individuals consent to have that use monitored by authorized district personnel. The district reserves the right to access and disclose, as appropriate, all information and data contained on district computers and district-owned E-mail system;
 - c. The district has established a retention schedule for removal of E-mail;
 - d. E-mail sent or received by a Board member or employee in connection with the transaction of public business may be a public record and subject to state archivist rules for retention and destruction;
 - e. Information and data entered or stored on the district's computers and E-mail system may become discoverable evidence if a public records request is made or a lawsuit is filed against the district. "Deleted" or "purged" data from district computers or E-mail system may be retrieved for later public records disclosure or disciplinary purposes, as deemed necessary by the district;
 - f. The district may set quotas for system disk usage. The district may allow system users to increase their quota by submitting a written request to the supervising teacher or systems analyst stating the need for the increase;
 - g. Passwords used on the district's system are the property of the district and must be provided to their supervisor or designated district personnel, as appropriate. Passwords that have not been provided to the district are prohibited;
 - h. Transmission of any materials regarding political campaigns is prohibited.
17. Ensure all student, staff and nondistrict system users complete and sign an agreement to abide by the district's electronic communications policy and administrative regulations. All such agreements will be maintained on file in the school or district office;
18. Provide student education about appropriate online behavior, including cyberbullying awareness and response, and how to interact with other individuals on social networking sites and in chat rooms;
19. Notify users of known copyright infringing activities and deny access to or remove the material.

System Access

1. Access to the district's system is authorized to:

Board members; district employees; students in grades K-12, with parent approval and when under the direct supervision of staff; district volunteers; district contractors; or other members of the public as authorized by the systems analyst or district administrators consistent with the district's policy governing use of district equipment and materials. All users are required to have a signed user agreement on file with the school or district. (Refer to Elementary Student User Agreement for the Coos Bay Network, Secondary Student User Agreement for the Coos Bay Network, and Staff User Agreement for the Coos Bay Network.)

2. Students, staff, Board members, volunteers, district contractors, and other members of the public may be permitted to use the district's system for personal use, in addition to official district business, consistent with Board policy, general use prohibitions/guidelines/etiquette, and other applicable provision of this administrative regulation. Personal use of district-owned computers including Internet and E-mail access by employees is prohibited during the employee's work hours. Additionally, Board member and employee use of district-owned computers may be permitted only when such use does not violate the provisions of ORS 244.040 and use is under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the general public under the district's policy governing use of district equipment and materials.

 - j. Attempts to arrange student meetings with anyone on the district's system, unless authorized by the system coordinator or teacher with prior parent approval.

2. Guidelines/Etiquette

System users will:

- a. Adhere to the same standards for communicating online that are expected in the classroom and consistent with Board policy and administrative regulations;
- b. Respect other people's time and cyberspace. Use real-time conference features such as talk/chat/Internet relay chat only as approved by the supervising teacher or systems analyst. Avoid downloading excessively large files. Remain on the system long enough to get needed information then exit the system. Act as though every byte sent costs somebody time and money, because it does;
- c. Do not be vulgar or offensive. Electronic text allows no context clues to convey shades of irony, sarcasm or humor;
- d. Take pride in communications. Check spelling and grammar;
- e. Respect the privacy of others. Do not read the mail or files of others without their permission. Do not reveal personal addresses or phone numbers of students or colleagues;
- f. Cite all quotes, references and sources;
- g. Adhere to guidelines for managing and composing effective E-mail messages;
 - (1) One subject per message; avoid covering various issues in a single E-mail message;
 - (2) Use a descriptive heading;
 - (3) Be concise; keep message short and to the point;
 - (4) Use bulleted lists to break up complicated text;

- (5) Conclude message with actions required and target dates;
 - (6) Remove E-mail in accordance with established guidelines;
 - (7) Remember, there is no expected right to privacy when using E-mail. Others may read or access mail;
 - (8) Always sign messages;
 - (9) Always acknowledge receipt of a document or file.
- h. Protect password confidentiality. Passwords are the property of the district and are not to be shared with others. Using another user's account or password or allowing such access by another may be permitted with systems analyst approval only;
 - i. Communicate only with such users and/or sites as may be authorized by the district;
 - j. Be forgiving of the mistakes of others and share your knowledge. Practice good mentoring techniques;
 - k. Report violations of the district's policy and administrative regulation or security problems to the supervising teacher, systems analyst, or administrator, as appropriate.
 - l. Follow district guidelines concerning purchase and installation of software. (Contact IT Department for current guidelines.)

Telephone/Membership/Other Charges

1. The district assumes no responsibility or liability for any membership, internet service provider charges or phone charges including, but not limited to, long distance charges, per minute (unit) surcharges, and/or equipment or line costs incurred by any home usage of the district's system.
2. Any disputes or problems regarding phone or internet services for home users of the district's system are strictly between the system user and their local phone company, internet service provider and/or long distance service provider.

Information Content/Third Party Supplied Information

1. System users and parents of student system users are advised that use of the district's system may provide access to materials that may be considered objectionable and inconsistent with the district's mission and goals. Parents should be aware of the existence of such materials and monitor their student's home usage of the district's system accordingly.
2. Opinions, advice, services and all other information expressed by system users, information providers, service providers or other third party individuals are those of the providers and not the district.
3. System users may, with supervising teacher or systems analyst approval, order services or merchandise from other individuals and agencies that may be accessed through the district's system. These individuals and agencies are not affiliated with the district. All matters concerning merchandise and services ordered including, but not limited to, purchase terms, payment terms, warranties, guarantees and delivery are solely between the seller and the system user. The district makes no warranties or representation whatsoever with regard to any goods or services provided by the seller. District staff and administration shall not be a party to any such transaction or be liable for any costs or damages arising out of, either directly or indirectly, the actions or inactions of the sellers.
4. The district does not warrant that the functions or services performed by or that the information or software contained on the system will meet the system user's requirements or that the system will be uninterrupted or error-free or that defects will be corrected. The district's system is provided on an "as is, as available" basis. The district does not make any warranties, whether express or implied including, without limitation, those of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose with respect to any services provided by the system and any information or software contained therein.
