

Corbett School District 39

Code: AE
Adopted: 10/16/97

District Goals

The goal of the district is to accept responsibility for developing each student into an adult who is confident, participates fully, learns continually and contributes meaningfully to our world while being satisfied with his/her role in life.

The district may work with staff, parents and community members to develop district goals. Goals will be adopted by the Board consistent with the goals adopted by the State Board. Goals will be reviewed annually and revised as needed.
