Code: GCQE
Adopted: 3/08/99
Orig. Code(s): 3030

Student Teachers

The Corvallis School District supports the student teaching programs of colleges and universities within the state as a method of ensuring well-trained teaching candidates.

Required Qualifications for University (Cooperating) Teachers:

Teachers meeting the following requirements may apply to be a university (cooperating) teacher:

1. A minimum of three years' teaching experience, one of which must be in the Corvallis School District. However, in rare instances, exceptions can be made at the discretion of the principal;
2. Applicants must agree to abide by the guidelines set by the university. Requirements may include taking a supervision course offered by OSU or WAU.

(Cooperating) teachers must be approved by building or program administrators.

OSU/WAU/509J Liaison Committee

1. Membership: Representatives from 509J and the Schools of Education from OSU and WAU.
2. Functions: To deal with problems having to do with the coordination and supervision of the OSU/WAU/509J teacher training program and to recommend solutions to the superintendent or to the Schools of Education of OSU and WAU.
