

Freedom of Expression

Students have a general right to freedom of expression within the school system. The district requires, however, that students exercise their rights fairly, responsibly and in a manner not disruptive to other individuals or to the educational process.

Freedom of Student Inquiry and Expression

1. Generally, students and student organizations are free to examine and discuss questions of interest to them and to express opinions publicly and privately within the school system, provided such examination and expression is fair and responsible and is not disruptive to other individuals or to the educational process. Students may support or oppose causes by orderly means which do not disrupt other individuals or the operation of the school.
2. In the classroom, students are free to examine views offered in any course of study, provided such examination is expressed in a responsible manner.

Freedom of Association

Students are free to organize associations to promote their common interests. Student organizations should be open to all students. Membership criteria may not exclude students on the basis of age, race, religion, color, national origin, disability, physical stature, marital status, sex, or sexual orientation. Each student organization must have a staff advisor to counsel and, when necessary, supervise students in the organization. All student organizations must submit to the school a statement of purpose, criteria for membership, rules, and procedures and a current list of officers. School administrators may establish reasonable rules and regulations governing the activity of student organizations.

Publications, Displays, and Productions

On occasion, materials such as leaflets, newsletters, cartoons, and other items including displays and productions are prepared, produced, and/or distributed by students as part of the educational process and free expression in an academic community. Materials may be subject to administrative review in conjunction with the superintendent or designee and restricted or prohibited pursuant to legitimate educational concerns. Such concerns include:

1. The material is or may be defamatory;
2. The material is inappropriate based on the age, grade level, and/or maturity of the audience;
3. The material is poorly written, inadequately researched, biased, or prejudiced;
4. Whether there is an opportunity for a named individual or named individuals to make a response;

5. Whether specific individuals may be identified even though the material does not use or give names;
6. The material is or may be otherwise generally disruptive to the school environment. Such disruption may occur, for example, if the material uses, advocates, or condones the use of profane language or advocates or condones the commission of unlawful acts;
7. Students, parents and members of the public might reasonably perceive the materials to bear the sanction or approval of the districts;
8. The material is discriminating on the basis of age, race, religion, color, national origin, disability, physical stature, marital status, sex, or sexual orientation.

High School Student Journalists

Generally, high school student journalists have the right to exercise freedom of speech and of the press in school-sponsored media. School sponsored media means materials that are prepared, substantially written, published or broadcast by student journalists; that are distributed or generally made available, either free of charge, or for a fee to members of the student body; and that are prepared under the direction of a student media adviser. School-sponsored media does not include media intended for distribution or transmission solely in the classrooms in which they are produced.

School-sponsored media prepared by student journalists are subject to reasonable time, place and manner restrictions, pursuant to state and federal law. School-sponsored media cannot contain material that:

1. Is libelous or slanderous;
2. Is obscene, pervasively indecent, or vulgar;
3. Is factually inaccurate or does not meet journalistic standards established for school-sponsored media;
4. Constitutes an unwarranted invasion of privacy;
5. Violates federal or state law; or
6. So incites students as to create a clear and present danger of:
  - a. The commission of unlawful acts on or off school premises;
  - b. The violation of district policies; or
  - c. The material and substantial disruption of the orderly operation of the school. A school official will base a forecast of material and substantial disruption on specific facts, including past experience in the school and current events influencing student behavior, and not on undifferentiated fear or apprehension.
