

Reporting of Suspected Abuse of a Child

Reporting

Any district employees having reasonable cause to believe that any child with whom the employee comes in contact has suffered abuse, or that any person with whom the employee comes in contact has abused a child, shall orally report or cause an oral report to be immediately made by telephone or otherwise to the Oregon Department of Human Services (DHS) or to a law enforcement agency within the county where the person making the report is at the time of their contact. The district employee should also immediately inform their supervisor, principal, or superintendent or designee. If known, such report shall contain the names and addresses of the child and the parents of the child or other persons responsible for the child's care, the child's age, the nature and extent of the suspected abuse, the explanation given for the suspected abuse, any other information which the person making the report believes might be helpful in establishing the possible cause of the suspected abuse and the identity of the possible perpetrator.

A written record of the child abuse report shall be made by the employee suspecting the abuse of a child. See JHFE-AR(2) Suspected Abuse of a Child Reporting Form. The written record may be made using the district's abuse reporting form which includes at a minimum:

1. The name and position of the person making the report;
2. The names and addresses of the child and the parents of the child, or other persons responsible for the child's care and the age of the child;
3. The name and position of any witness to the report;
4. A description of the nature and extent of the abuse, including any information that could be helpful in establishing cause of abuse and identity of the abuser;
5. A description of how the report was made (i.e., phone or other method);
6. The name of the agency and individual who took the report;
7. The date and time that the report was made; and
8. The names of persons who received a copy of the written report.

The written record of the abuse report shall not be placed in the student's educational record. A copy of the written report shall be retained by the employee making the report and a copy shall be provided to the employee's supervisor and assistant superintendent.

When the district receives a report of suspected abuse of a child by one of its employees, and the assistant superintendent determines that there is reasonable cause to support the report, the district shall place the district employee on paid administrative leave until the DHS or a law enforcement agency either: 1) determines that the report is unfounded or that the report will not be pursued; or 2) determines that the report is founded and the education provider takes the appropriate disciplinary action against the district employee. If the DHS or a law enforcement agency is unable to determine whether the abuse of a child occurred, the district may either reinstate the employee or take disciplinary action at the district's discretion.

The written record of each reported incident of abuse of a child, action taken by the district, and any findings as a result of the report shall be maintained by the district.

 - a. Physical;
 - b. Neglect;
 - c. Mental injury;

Confidentiality of Records

The name, address, and other identifying information about the employee who made the report are confidential and are not accessible for public inspection.

The disciplinary records of a district employee or former district employee convicted of a crime listed in ORS 342.143 are not exempt from disclosure under ORS 192.345 or 192.355. Therefore, if a district employee or former employee is convicted of a crime listed in ORS 342.143, the district that is or was the employer of that employee when the crime was committed shall disclose the disciplinary records of the employee to any person upon request. However, prior to the disclosure of a disciplinary record the district shall remove any personally identifiable information from the record that would disclose the identity of a child, a crime victim, or a district employee who is not the subject of the disciplinary record.

Failure to Comply

Any district employee who fails to report a suspected abuse of a child as provided by this policy and the prescribed Oregon law commits a violation punishable by law. A district employee who fails to comply with the confidentiality of records requirements commits a violation punishable by the prescribed law. If the student is to be interviewed at the school, the administrator or designee shall make a private space available. The administrator or designee of the school may, at the discretion of the investigator, be present to facilitate the interview. If the investigating official does not have adequate identification the administrator shall refuse access to the student.

3. The administrator or designee shall advise the investigator of any conditions of disability, if any, prior to any interview with the affected child;
4. District employees are not authorized to reveal anything that transpires during an investigation in which the employee participates, nor shall the information become part of the student's education records, except that the employee may testify at any subsequent trial resulting from the investigation and may be interviewed by the respective litigants prior to any such trial.
