Educational Philosophy

It is the Board's desire to provide a rigorous curriculum which prepares students for the 21st Century.

The Board believes:

1. The family is the primary influence in the development and education of the child;
2. It takes the total community to raise a child;
3. Learning is an active, lifelong process;
4. The school is responsible to provide continual opportunities for student success;
5. Every individual is unique and important;
6. A student's attitude and self image are key factors in his/her educational success;
7. Quality teaching demands innovation, collaboration and continual professional development.
