Orig. Code(s): BH

Orientation of New Board Members

Recognizing that the position of Board member may be complicated, the following will be provided to all new members to help orient them to their new responsibilities;

1. An invitation will be extended to attend Board meetings prior to taking office to observe the operation of the Board;
2. The member will receive a copy of Board policies;
3. The member will be encouraged to attend the OSBA Summer Board Conference and the fall convention;
4. The member will be invited to meet informally with the Board and the superintendent to cover questions on Board policy and Board meeting procedures and be informed of the current status of issues before the Board;
5. The member will be invited to go on a tour of school facilities.
