Club Sports, Terms and Conditions

As the needs of the community change, the athletic program will be dynamic in its consideration of new sports in addition to dropping school-sponsored sports. To this end, the district shall considered club sports.

Club sports are defined in policy IGDJ as district recognized, but with limited support, high school sports with participation determined by OSAA or other legitimate affiliation to be approved by the district, a Club Sports must demonstrate that:

1. The sport will participate in a bonafide league or organization.
2. District terms and condition for the sport have been met. These terms and conditions include:
 - a. The financial resources, if any, desired from the district are congruent with the district's ability to provide funds;
 - b. The facility needs, if any, desired from the district, the proposed schedule for use, the club's responsibilities to help maintain or maintain and control the requested facility.
 - c. The official recognition desired (e.g., to be referred to as the "Creswell High School Golf Team, Creswell High School Equestrian Team, etc.) from ASB.
 - d. The district is exculpated from insurance liability and responsibility arising from any trot claim with regard to coaches, training accidents, game accidents and/or transportation accidents.
 - e. All coaches meet the same standards of care and background checks as required of any district coach. Coaches will demonstrate they know, understand and appreciate the risks associated with the sport they supervise.
 - f. All coaches are accountable to the district athletic director.
 - g. All participants abide by the district Code of Conduct and other eligibility standards.
