

Dallas School District 2

Code: IGBCB
Adopted: 9/9/02

At-Risk Students

The Dallas School District is committed to providing the opportunity for the success of all students. This includes students identified as “at-risk” due to environmental and/or life circumstances that place them in peril of being unable to benefit from regular educational programs.

In addition, these environmental and life circumstances may result in these students failing to complete high school graduation requirements or the equivalent. To meet this commitment the District shall provide:

1. Staff development in classroom management.
2. Staff development in instruction.
3. School-wide management procedures.
4. Special programs in the school setting.
5. Coordination of services between school staff and community agencies.
