

Challenge of Instructional Material

I. Inquiries

- A. Any inquiry made to an administrator regarding instructional material by any person(s) shall be made known to the staff member(s) using the material. The staff member(s) shall be made aware of the person(s) making the inquiry.
- B. The administrator shall then arrange for the person(s) making the inquiry to meet with the staff member(s) using the material in an effort to resolve the issue informally.
- C. The administrator shall inform the person(s) making the inquiry that if they are not satisfied with the outcome of the informal process, they may file a formal written challenge.

II. Challenges

- A. All formal challenges shall be in writing on the District form prepared for this purpose and must be submitted to the Superintendent.
- B. Upon receipt of a written challenge, the Superintendent shall, within 10 student contact days, activate the District Challenge Review Committee (DCRC)* and provide a copy of the written challenge to the staff member(s) involved.
- C. The DCRC shall consider the challenge within 10 student contact days of the committee's activation by the Superintendent.
- D. The DCRC, once activated, shall recommend to the Superintendent whether or not the challenged material should be withdrawn from use during the review process. The Superintendent may withdraw challenged material following receipt of the recommendation from the DCRC until final resolution is reached by the School Board.
- E. Following a review of the challenged material, the DCRC shall submit its report and recommendation to the Superintendent for presentation to the School Board. Copies of the recommendation shall be provided to the person(s) filing the challenge and to the staff member(s) involved.
- F. The School Board shall announce its decision at the next School Board meeting following receipt of the committee's recommendation. If the School Board's decision is contrary to the recommendation of the DCRC, the reasons will be communicated, in writing, to the DCRC.

*The District Challenge Review Committee (DCRC) shall be appointed by the Superintendent and shall be composed as follows:

District Employees (7):

- 1 representing the high school
- 1 representing the middle school
- 3 representing in-town elementary schools
- 1 representing the District at large
- 1 administrator

Patrons (6):

- 1 representing the high school
- 1 representing the middle school
- 3 representing in-town elementary schools
- 1 representing the District at large

At least four (4) of the District employees shall be licensed teachers. Members shall be selected from a list of people having expressed their willingness to serve on this committee.

Members will serve terms of three (3) years on a rotating basis with the initial terms set by the Superintendent (one third shall serve one [1] year, one third shall serve two [2] years, and one third shall serve three [3] years).

The DCRC shall be chaired by a District Office administrator appointed by the Superintendent and shall be a non-voting member of the committee.

The committee chair shall be responsible for documenting all proceedings, for adherence to established procedures and guidelines and for preparing and presenting the report and recommendation to the School Board based on the minutes of the meeting(s). Additionally, the chair will send copies of the committee's report and recommendation to the person(s) filing the challenge and the staff member(s) involved.

III. Procedures to be followed by the DCRC

- A. Review "Challenge of Instructional Material" Policy and Administrative Rule IIA.
- B. Establish a calendar for the review of the challenged material.
- C. Review the challenged material considering the theme, concept, vocabulary, and illustrations as they apply to:
 - 1. the appropriateness of the material for the instructional objectives established for the lesson(s) in which it was used, including its presentation and follow-up.
 - 2. the appropriateness of the material's level of difficulty.
 - 3. the appropriateness of the material for the age group(s) with which it was used.
- D. Request that the staff member(s) involved submit a written explanation of their use of the challenged material, specifically addressing its relationship to the established curriculum and course objectives.
- E. An opportunity will be provided to person(s) filing the challenge, staff member(s) involved, outside consultants, lay people, other staff members or other individuals to offer oral or written testimony on the challenge within such procedures and limitations as may be established by the chair with the consensus of the committee.

- F. Review and discuss possible options for recommendation, including:
 - 1. continued use of the material as used, with no reservations.
 - 2. restricted or modified use of the material in terms of subject area, grade level, etc.
 - 3. no further use of the material as a part of the regular or support curriculum in the Dallas School District.

- G. Procedures for voting:
 - 1. A quorum (one half the committee membership plus one) shall be present to act upon any business to come before the committee.
 - 2. All motions and votes shall be recorded and reported in the minutes of the meeting(s).
 - 3. Votes will be recorded from only the members present at the time of the vote.
 - 4. A simple majority of those present is required for a motion to pass.
 - 5. Roll call votes may be taken.

- H. Following the discussion and review of possible options for recommendation, a committee member may offer a motion outlining the committee's recommendation. Action shall be taken on that motion and any subsequent motions within the procedures outlined in section G above and consistent with parliamentary procedure.

- I. All meetings of the DCRC are subject to the Public Meetings Law pursuant to ORS 192.610 to 192.690.
