Reporting to Parents/Legal Guardians

A written report on the progress of the student shall be made to the parents/legal guardians or surrogate parents on a regular schedule. The report format is to be developed by the administrative staff with input from teachers.

The report shall identify, as appropriate, achievement toward the fulfillment of graduation requirements, progress towards the state standards, general educational development and attendance.

Other types of reporting to parents/legal guardians shall be implemented at the various grade and building levels as required to provide information on educational progress to parents.

Teachers and administrators are encouraged to report positive achievement or outstanding behavior of individual students at appropriate times.
