Compulsory Attendance

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all students ages 7-18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to attend regularly a school full-time during the entire school term.

All students five or six year of age who have been enrolled in a public school are required to attend regularly the public school while enrolled in the school.

Persons having legal control of a student ages 7-18 who has not completed the 12th grade are required to have the student attend school. Persons having legal control of a student who is five or six years of age and has enrolled the child in public school are required to have the student attend and maintain regular attendance at the public school while the child is enrolled in the public school.

Under the superintendent's direction and supervision, principals shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law. Violations may be reported to the Umatilla County District Attorney for prosecution. Failure to send a student and to maintain a student in regular attendance is a Class C violation. The superintendent may issue a citation. The process and procedures for issuing a citation will be first approved by the district attorney.

A parent who is not supervising his/her student by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of ORS 163.577(1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.

Exemptions From Compulsory School Attendance

In the following cases, students shall not be required to attend public schools full-time:

1. Students being taught in a private or parochial school in courses of study usually taught in grades 1-12 in the public schools and in attendance for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
2. Students proving to the school Board's satisfaction that they have acquired the courses of study taught in grades 1-12 in the public schools;
3. Students being taught by a parent or private teacher the courses of study usually taught in grades 1-12 in the public school for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
4. Students being educated in the home by a parent:
 - a. When a student is taught or is withdrawn from a public school to be taught by a parent or private teacher, the parent or teacher must notify the InterMountain Education Service District superintendent in writing within 10 day of such occurrence. In addition, when a home-schooled student moves to a new ESD, the parent shall notify the new ESD in writing, within 10 days, of the intent to continue home schooling. The ESD superintendent shall acknowledge receipt of notification in writing within 90 days of receipt of the notification and inform the school district superintendent of the student's residence.

Notification must be received and acknowledged before a child is withdrawn from school and thereafter before the start of each school year;

- b. Each student being taught by a parent or private teacher shall be examined no later than August 15, following grades 3, 5, 8 and 10:
 - (1) If the student was withdrawn from public school, the first examination shall be administered at least 18 months after the date the student withdrew;
 - (2) If the student never attended public or private school, the first examination shall be administered prior to the end of grade 3;
 - (3) Procedures for home-schooled students with disabilities are set out in OAR 581-021-0029.
 - c. Examinations testing each student shall be from the list of approved examinations from the State Board of Education;
 - d. The examination must be administered by a neutral individual qualified to administer tests on the approved list provided by the Oregon Department of Education;
 - e. The person administering the examination shall score the examination and report the results to the parent. Upon request of the ESD superintendent, the parent shall submit the results of the examination to the ESD;
 - f. All costs for the test instrument, administration and scoring are the responsibility of the parent;
 - g. In the event the ESD superintendent finds that the student is not showing satisfactory educational progress, the ESD superintendent shall provide the parent with a written statement of the reasons for the finding, based on the test results and shall follow the guidelines in Oregon Revised Statutes and Oregon Administrative Rules.
5. Students excluded from attendance as provided by law;
6. An exemption may be granted to the parent of any student 16 or 17 years of age who is lawfully employed full-time, lawfully employed part time and enrolled in school, or enrolled in a community college or other state registered alternative education program.
