

Elkton School District 34

Code: JECBA
Adopted: 8/10/98

Admission of Exchange Students

The district may accept exchange students for admission from international exchange programs such as the Rotary International, American Field Service, the International Christian Youth programs and such other programs as may from time to time be authorized by the Board. Such students will not be required to pay tuition.

The instances where a family in the district makes arrangements with some family abroad for the exchange of students from their respective families, the foreign student so enrolling in school shall not be subject to tuition requirements, provided the families submit a letter verifying such an arrangement.
