Code: BBAA
Adopted: 7/2/73
Revised: 11/2/83, 9/17/97
Orig. Code(s): 1210, 1220

Responsibilities and Functions of the Board

Responsibilities of the Board

The responsibilities of the board shall include:

- Complying with Oregon Revised Statutes, Administrative Rules and other regulations of the State Board of Education;
- Selecting and evaluating the superintendent as defined by district policies and procedures;
- Accepting or rejecting the provisions of permissive laws;
- Establishing and appraising the educational activities and needs of the district's schools in all cases not provided for nor prohibited by law;
- Seeking funds for providing adequate buildings, equipment, and site improvements needed for the operation of its schools.

Functions of the Board

The functions of the board shall include:

- Policy Making. Policy making is that function whereby the Board of Directors determines what policies and plans to adopt, selects a superintendent of schools as executive officer, delegates to the superintendent the responsibility for implementing its policies and plans, and seeks the financial means for their achievement;
- Executive. The executive is that function which is concerned with implementing the policies and plans, keeping the public informed, and furnishing creative leadership to the people and to the staff. The administration of this function is delegated to the superintendent-clerk;
- Appraisal or Evaluation. Appraisal or evaluation is that function which seeks, through careful examination and study, to determine the effectiveness of the operation of the school system and the quality of the educational program in terms of the stated objectives;
- Decision or Order Making. Decision or order making is that function by which individual rights, duties, or privileges of specific parties are determined;
- Budget. The board shall act as a levying board in the budget process;
