

Eugene School District 4J

Code: GCQ
Adopted: 7/2/73
Orig. Code(s): 3020

Staff Organization

The lines of administrative organization lead ultimately to the prime team of teachers and students. The classroom is the heart and essence of the effort of the entire system, and teachers are encouraged to use individual initiative and creativity in presenting the district-approved curriculum and meeting the objectives set down in the course of study. Teachers who wish to deviate from the district-approved course of study shall follow the procedures established by the administration. The district Board of Directors may approve an experimental program which would deviate substantially from the standard course of study.
