

Compulsory Attendance****

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all students ages 7-18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to attend regularly, a school full-time during the entire school term.

All students five or six years of age who have been enrolled in a public school are required to attend regularly.

Persons having legal control of a student ages 7-18 who has not completed the 12th grade are required to have the student attend school. Persons having legal control of a student who is five or six years of age and enrolled in a public school are required to have the student attend and maintain regular attendance.

Under the superintendent's direction and supervision, attendance supervisors shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law to the superintendent or designee. Failure to enroll a student and to maintain a student in regular attendance is a Class C violation.

The district will develop procedures and guidelines for addressing nonattendance and truancy.

A parent who is not supervising his/her student by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of ORS 163.577 (1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.

In addition, under policy JHFDA - Suspension of Driving Privileges, the district may report students with 10 or more consecutive days of unexcused absences or 10 school days of unexcused absences during a single trimester.

Exemptions from Compulsory School Attendance

In the following cases, students shall not be required to attend public schools full-time:

1. Students being taught in a private or parochial school in courses of study usually taught in grades 1-12 in the public schools and in attendance for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
2. Students proving to the Board's satisfaction that they have acquired the courses of study taught in grades 1-12 in the public schools;
3. Students being taught by a private teacher the courses of study usually taught in grades 1-12 in the public school for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
4. Students being educated in the home by a parent under ORS 339.030 (see Administrative Rules for details);

5. Students excluded from attendance as provided by law;
6. An exemption may be granted to the parent of any student 16 or 17 years of age if the student is lawfully employed full-time or is lawfully employed part-time and enrolled in school, a community college or an alternative education program as defined in ORS 336.615.
