

Integrated Pest Management

The building grounds supervisor, under the supervision of the superintendent, will assure proper control and limited use of any pesticides or other harmful chemicals which might be used or stored on district premises. The building grounds supervisor, in conjunction with the certified applicator, will develop and implement safety precautions to prevent unnecessary exposure of staff, students and the public or other non-targeted species/areas to potential harmful substances.