School Uniforms**

The Board supports the development of voluntary school uniform programs in district schools in order to maintain and enhance a positive learning environment. School uniform decisions shall be left to the school site, subject to superintendent approval and the requirements of this policy. The input and support of staff, students and parents will be required, in all such decisions.

Students may opt out of the school's voluntary uniform program by submitting a waiver request to the principal detailing the grounds for the objection. No student shall be denied attendance at school, penalized or otherwise subject to disciplinary action for failing to wear a uniform by reason of personal choice, financial hardship or objection based on religious grounds.

No district funds shall be used to provide uniforms for students.
