Abuse of a Child or Other Investigations Conducted on Public Charter School Premises

Any investigation of abuse of a child will be directed by the Oregon Department of Human Services or law enforcement officials as required by law. When the superintendent is notified that the Department of Human Services or law enforcement would like to interview a student at school, the superintendent must request that the investigating official provide the information below. Failure to meet one of the five criteria may result in the superintendent’s refusal to allow the student interview on school property.

When a principal or superintendent is notified that law enforcement would like to interview a student at school for the purpose of an investigation that is not related to abuse of a child, the principal or superintendent must request that the investigating official provide the information below. Failure to meet one of the five criteria may result in the principal or superintendent’s refusal to allow the student interview on public charter school property.
