Student Discipline

It is the policy of the Board to provide schools which are free from discrimination, ethically wholesome, safe and healthy. Each student is entitled to come to school in an environment in which learning is valued and disruptions are minimized. To this end, the superintendent is authorized to set forth administrative regulations in the area of student discipline, suspension and expulsion. These regulations shall provide for:

1. Procedures that focus on changing the behavior of students who interfere with the rights of others;
2. Procedures that focus on changing the behavior of students who are not achieving to the highest level of reasonable expectations for their own learning;
3. A range of consequences for misbehavior that allow for professional judgment in best meeting the needs of the individual student; and
4. Appropriate consideration of due process procedures whenever applicable.
