Board Organization/Board Organizational Meeting

No later than the next regular meeting after July 1, the Board will organize for the year.

The organizational meeting will consist of, but not be limited to, the following:

1. Election of a Board chairman;
2. Election of a vice chairman;
3. Provision for a time and place for regular meetings.

The incumbent chairman of the Board will preside until a successor is elected, whereupon the successor will assume the chair. In the event no incumbent chairman or vice chairman remains on the Board, or neither is able to continue to serve as an officer, a temporary chairman will be selected to conduct the election. No member may serve as chairman for more than two years in succession.

Duly elected new Board members will present themselves at this meeting to assume their positions as members of the Board.
