Superintendent's Professional Development/Consulting Activities

The Board expects the superintendent to stay informed regarding new and promising developments in the field of education by visiting other school systems and attending educational conferences, seminars, workshops and other professional meetings. The Board recognizes the superintendent's obligation to contribute to the profession of school administration and to the field of public education in general.

The Board also expects the superintendent to devote full attention and energy to the concerns of the district. The superintendent may not be engaged in any other employment nor in long-term consulting assignments. The superintendent will inform the Board about meetings or visits and will report to the Board the results of such meetings and visits.
