Administrative Organization

The Board authorizes the superintendent to organize staff in order to secure clear understanding of the functions of each official and of the relationship between and among them; to establish clear lines of communications, both vertically and horizontally; and to establish the necessary councils, cabinets and committees to provide for efficient operation of the schools. Channels will be established so that recommendations or decisions can be reviewed by the administrative officer concerned and, where appropriate, by the Board.

In the organization and administration of the district, the superintendent will balance responsibility with commensurate authority subject to the reserved and legal powers of the Board. Staff members will be given authority to make the decisions necessary to perform tasks assigned. The superintendent will review the administrative organizational structure and responsibilities with the Board on an annual basis.
