Assemblies

School assemblies are for the education of all the students at the district high school. When there is an assembly or any activity that students may attend, the following rules will apply:

1. Student has the choice of going to the activity or the library;
2. At the activity of their choice the student will remain until the end of the activity. The student is to respect and consider the rights of others, the performer's right to do their thing and the spectator's right to watch and hear;
3. All teachers, except those on prep period, will attend all activities with the students of their classes and maintain control of their class;
4. If enough students choose not to attend, regular classes will be held.
