

Helix School District 1R

Code: CM
Adopted: 1/8/97
Orig. Code(s): None

State Standard

Helix School District maintenance of evidence of compliance with the state standards is hereby assigned to be a function of the superintendent/principal of the District. The Helix School Board shall assist the superintendent/principal by providing official action when it is required for compliance with the standards.

As required by OAR 581-22-712 (4), "By January 15 of each year" a report to the community is to be made concerning the District's status in relation to the state standards. This report will be presented at a regular Board meeting and may be published at the discretion of the Board and/or superintendent/principal.

A file of compliance material will be maintained in the superintendent/principal's office. This file shall be maintained on a current basis with changes, additions and updates, developed and posted as required by State Standards.
