

Helix School District 1R

Code: FJ
Adopted: 1/8/97
Orig. Code(s): None

Retirement of Facilities

School buildings that are no longer adequate for instructional purposes should be sold, dismantled or used to benefit the district or public in other ways.

When the Helix School Board determines a building may be inadequate for instructional purposes a Board sub-committee will be formed to investigate the problem and prepare a recommendation for board action.

The Board will invite the viewpoints of community residents and staff prior to a final decision on the disposition of any school district facility.
