Hiring of Certified Staff

Following a recruitment and screening process, interviews will be held with the certified candidates for a vacant position. In addition to the superintendent/principal, Board members and other staff members may be included on an interview team.

The superintendent/principal is authorized to offer a contract to a successful candidate pending Board approval of the offer. The Helix School Board will ratify or reject all contract offers at a regular or special board meeting. Contracts presented for Board consideration should be signed by the candidate.
