Instructional Design

The Helix School District #1-R curriculum is designed to provide students with a range of preparation in academic areas as well as in developing values and behaviors in interpersonal relations, exploring leisure-time activities, preparing for the work force and acquiring the broad spectrum of skills necessary for success in life.

This instructional design encompasses the "Goals for Elementary and Secondary Education" as defined by OAR 518-22- 201. These goals require that all students have the opportunity to learn to function effectively in six life roles which are identified as: Individual, Learner, Producer, Citizen, Consumer, and Family Member. Curriculum developed and presented in all subject matter areas shall be directly related to allowing each student to achieve functional competence in the six life roles specified.
