Special Interest Materials

In general, supplementary materials from non-school sources should have the approval of the superintendent/principal before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses and are timely.

Printed materials from non-school sources should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds without approval of the superintendent/principal. Students may not be used as agents for distributing non-school materials to the homes without the superintendent/principal's approval.

Educational films and all video rentals secured from or through commercial sources will be approved by the superintendent/principal prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly followed.
