Delayed Graduation

Any student who has not reached 21 years of age and has not graduated from high school may attend for completion of graduation requirements. A person past the age of 18 years or who has been in attendance in high school for four years may return to school on a planned program to finish graduation requirements.

The planned program will be agreed upon by the student, counselor, superintendent/principal and Board and will consist of a minimum of a four period day. The plan may include work experience for part of the four periods. Regular attendance will also be part of the planned program. A person completing a delayed graduation program will receive a diploma or certificate of competency dated the year he/she finishes.
